Farms Recently Placed With Us for Immediate Sale.

A RIVER FARM, containing 350 acres, located half way between Plainfield and Mansfield, known as the Webster Haskins' farm. This is one of the best farms in Washington county and must be sold to settle the estate. There are three large barns and a good two-story house. The barns need some repairs. The stables will tie up sixty head of cattle. The farm will keep seventy five cows and teams to carry on the place summer and winter. Plenty of wood. Sugar orchard of about 1200 trees. About 100,000 feet of saw timber. Apple orchard of grafted fruit. Never failing water at house and barns. Both house and barns are lighted by electricity on the New England and People's telephone line. Rural delivery about to be established. Only 3 1-2 miles from three good creameries. School 1 1/2 rods and town house fifty rods from the house. We were surprised when the administrator gave us the price and no doubt you will be only $4,000.00. If you are looking for a good farm, why look further?

HERE IS A SMALLER FARM at a less price, located in the town of Corinth. Contains 157 1/2 acres, with 100,000 feet of saw timber, only one-half mile from a sawmill. Sixty rods to school and church. Buildings in good repair. House contains nine rooms and barn is 80 by 30 feet. Will keep about 20 head of cattle and team. The price is only $1,500.00.

THIS ONE HUNDRED ACRE FARM is only five miles from the city. Buildings in fair condition. Land is level and free from stone. Price, $1,250.00. Small payment down and balance easy.

THIS ONE HUNDRED AND THIRTY ACRE FARM is seven miles out. Will cut 75 tons of hay with machine, besides producing other crops. Sugar orchard of 700 trees. Evaporator and tubs. One hundred rods to church, post-office, school and store. Two good apple orchards, grafted fruit. Buildings good. Three barns and hen house. Running water to house and barns. We will trade this place for property in the city. Call for particulars.

SLOCUM REPORT IN.

Crew is Held Responsible For New York's Steamboat Disaster.

New York, Sept. 24.—That the blame for the death of the 559 men, women and children on the excursion boat General Slocum should be placed on the officers and crew of the steamboat is the verdict of the local board of steamboat inspectors, which has just drawn up its report on the investigation into New York's greatest disaster. The board has no criticism to offer of the general officers and directors of the Knickerbocker Steamboat company.

The board's report comments severely on the absolute lack of discipline among the crew and recommends that the licenses be revoked of Captain Van Schaick, Edward Van Wart, the pilot, and Benjamin T. Conklin, the chief engineer. The board also holds that the fire was discovered at the upper end of the sunken meadows and contends that North Brother island was the nearest suitable point to beach the steamboat.

The report is signed by James A. Dumont and Thomas H. Barrett and is addressed to Robert S. Rodie, the supervising inspector.

Judge Parker's Visitors.

New York, Sept. 24.—Several delegations of visitors called during the day to pay their respects to Judge Parker. One of the most important callers at the hotel was Thomas F. Ryan, a member of the national executive committee. Senator Gorman, former Senator Jones and Colonel J. M. Guffey held conferences also. Other callers were Herman Ridder, editor of the New York Staats Zeitung; William S. Rodie, chairman of the Bureau of organization for New York state; Charles S. Hamilton of Boston, Mass.; Urey Woodson, secretary of the national committee, and a delegation of editors consisting of J. P. Caldwell and D. A. Tompkins of the Charlotte (N. C.) Observer; Chronicle, James R. Gray of the Atlanta (Ga.) Journal and H. H. Hanson of the Montgomery (Ala.) Advertiser.

Tastes of the Tongue.

The tongue is divided into three regions of taste, the first of which—the tip portion—is chiefly sensible to pungent and acid tastes, the middle portion to sweets or bitter, while the back is confined entirely to the flavors of roast meats, butter, oil and rich and fatty substances.
